BAPTIST ACADEMY ~ PARENT AGREEMENT

Baptist Academy agrees that the Bible places the ultimate responsibility for each child upon his own parent: and the school, therefore, recognizes the absolute right of a parent (guardian) to privately counsel with school authorities over matters concerning their own child and even the right to withdraw a child when the parent (guardian) feels there is not substantial harmony between their own expectations and the school's policies.

For their part, parents (guardians) understand that the school is an entity which must operate by its own convictions and standards lest each student do "That which is right in his own eyes" and there be chaos as a result. Furthermore, in a spirit of Christian cooperation and support, parents (guardians) agree:

1. To guarantee their child(ren)'s adherence to the rules and standards of the school and of their respective teachers.
2. To provide help and support at home to their child(ren) so that academic goals may be achieved. This may include, for example, providing encouragement and a satisfactory time and place to study in the completion of homework.
3. To show a genuine interest in the progress and grade reports concerning their child(ren).
4. To cooperate with reasonable school requests, e.g. for special conferences and for checking or assisting with student homework assignments, etc.
5. To attend, if at all reasonably possible, regularly scheduled school programs involving their child(ren).
6. To NEVER malign the school or any of its personnel or policies. Biblically (Matthew 18:15-17), the proper procedure for any question, grievance, or offense is to go directly and privately to the one responsible for the difficulty. Also, this action is never to be a confrontation, but rather a calm conference designed to gain an understanding of the facts and to restore a good relationship. By the same standard, the school is obligated never to publicly discuss the shortcomings of particular students.
7. To support the disciplinary measures that may be found necessary by the school, including corporal punishment.
8. To pay all tuition installments and other fees in timely fashion. Tuition is due on the 1st of each month and if received by the 10th there will be no late fee. After the 10th, a late fee of $30.00 will be added to your account. All those leaving Baptist Academy during the year will be required to pay the balance on the building fee plus tuition through the month of attendance. Interest of 1.5% per month will be charged on any amount 60 days in arrears. I understand that all records will not be released unless balance is paid in full.
9. If collection measures are necessary, parent/guardian would be responsible for all collection fees therein incurred, including attorney fees, if necessary.
10. I give permission for my child(ren) to take part in ALL school-sponsored trips/activities on or off the school premises and absolve the school from liability because of any injury to my child(ren). ____ Yes ____ No If no, please explain on back of sheet.
11. To contribute helpful, constructive ideas to teachers and administration.
12. To support and promote the school as opportunities arise.
13. To demonstrate a consistent Christian life in harmony with the Biblical principles that are taught at the school.
14. To read the "STUDENT DRESS and APPEARANCE STANDARDS" in the student handbook and agree to see to it that their child(ren) adhere to it.
